The above referenced case is before this court upon the magistrate judge's recommendation that defendants' motion for summary judgment be granted.

This court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the magistrate judge's report to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). However, absent prompt objection by a dissatisfied party, it appears that Congress did not intend for the district court to review the factual and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge. Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Additionally, any party who fails to file timely, written objections to the magistrate judge's report pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) waives the right to raise those objections at the appellate court level. United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984).¹ On December 7, 2021, plaintiff filed a motion for extension of time to file objections. Plaintiff was granted a new deadline of January 6, 2022. As of the date of this order, no objections have been filed to the magistrate judge's report and recommendation, nor has additional time been requested.

A de novo review of the record indicates that the magistrate judge's report accurately summarizes this case and the applicable law. Accordingly, the magistrate judge's report and recommendation is AFFIRMED, and incorporated into this order. For reasons articulated by the magistrate judge, defendants' motion for summary judgment is GRANTED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
